

Creativity Clips

Winter/Spring 2018
Inside this issue:

Goodwill Cash Mob Scheduled	1
Build-a-Bruiser for Faculty and Staff	2
Institute for host Science Olympiad Event—Shamrock Bruiser	2
Creativity Contest	3

Goodwill Cash Mob Scheduled

Adrian College business classes and the Institute for Creativity will host a Cash Mob at the Adrian Goodwill location starting this Thursday, and Friday, and extending through the weekend. February 15th, 16th, (17th and 18th). Hours are from 9 AM—5 PM. Goodwill has two locations:

Donation Center
1357 Division Street
(Goodwill Headquarters)
Adrian MI 49221

Retail Store and Donation Ctr.
(Behind Discount Tire)
1400 Us Highway 223
Adrian MI 49221

Students will be visiting the retail store and will either make a donation and/or spend at least $1.00. The goal is to raise awareness city-wide for Goodwill and help generate revenue in excess of normally-planned sales. Please join us!

Happy Valentine's Day

Institute for Creativity

2017-18 Creativity Award Competition

NOW OPEN FOR ENTRIES

From students, faculty and staff

How to enter:

Your ideas for improving campus life, in any aspect, are welcome. You can enter hard copies in one of three locations: Ritchie Marketplace, Caine Student Center, or outside the Institute for Creativity.

You may also enter online at:

<https://adrian.edu/academics/institutes/creativity/creativity-award-submission/>

2015-2016 Implemented Idea:

Our most recently implemented project included two combined ideas, joining them together to make one great idea! The first idea was submitted by Cassandra Rigney. Her idea was to "create a large Bulldog Statuette." The second idea submitted by Jordan York, and her suggestion was to create a "fountain of gifts." Joined together to create a huge Bulldog Bank which can be seen in Caine Student Center.

Deadline:

March 1, 2018

Grand Prize:

$1,000

plus up to $10,000 funding to support the implementation of the idea

Runners up:

Will receive an Arrington Bookstore Gift Card

7th Annual Creativity Contest

UNLEASH YOUR CREATIVITY