FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Statement regarding the arrest of Stephanie June Jass:

Adrian College was notified today by the Michigan State Police that Stephanie June Jass, a former faculty member at the College, was arrested by the Michigan State Police following an investigation by their Cyber Command Center.

The arrest follows months of forensic examination by the State Police into allegations that Ms. Jass accessed various Adrian College e-mail accounts and documents without authorization. Such a violation is a felony charge in the State of Michigan. We are told that Ms. Jass will be arraigned on these charges by the Lenawee County Prosecutor's Office.

Adrian College wants to sincerely thank the Michigan State Police and the Lenawee County Prosecutor's Office for their thorough investigation and for ultimately bringing charges in this crime. Privacy rights are a fundamental principle of our American democracy and Adrian College stands with those who protect these rights.
