

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is awarded for courses that are substantially equivalent to Adrian College courses or that are considered by the College to be liberal arts courses and for which the student has earned grades of C (2.00) or better.

Credits are accepted on a credit-for-credit basis: 3 quarter hours equal 2 semester hours. Grades for transfer courses do not count in the Adrian College cumulative grade point average.

All grades received will be used to compute graduation honors. Grades received at another institution cannot be used to alter or remove Adrian College grade point deficiencies.

Transfer credit will not be accepted for Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs).

Students will be limited to no more than nine hours of online course credit from transferring institutions. Appeals to this limit will be directed to the College's Academic Status and Review committee.

Online transfer credit will not be accepted for lab courses in the natural sciences or modern languages, applied courses in music, theatre or studio courses in art.

Transfer work from community, junior or two-year colleges does not count toward the required 30 hours of 300- 400 level course work.

Transfer credit is accepted at the level at which it was earned at the institution of origin.

Students must successfully complete a minimum of 15 of the required 30 hours of 300-400 level credit at Adrian College.

No more than 30 semester hours of credit and 2 semester hours of physical education activity courses will be accepted for the associate's degree.

No more than a combined total of 90 semester hours of credit are allowed for transfer from two-year and four-year colleges for the baccalaureate degree. This total can include no more than 60 semester hours of credit from a two-year institution.

No more than 2 semester hours of physical education activity courses will be accepted.
