Individual Studies represent courses which are a part of the normal Adrian College curriculum. They are offered on an individual basis, rather than in a traditional classroom setting on a schedule mutually agreed upon by the student and the supervising faculty.

Individual Study courses are expected to include substantially the same content and be of the same rigor as would the same course delivered in a classroom. In courses where interaction among students is a major part of the experience, other work must be substituted.

Student Directions:

1. Verify that you are taking an individualized study course. That is, a course that is offered at Adrian College as listed in the course catalog, but you are unable to take during a regular semester offering. If you are taking a course that is not listed in the course catalog, please fill out an independent study form.
2. Discuss your interest with faculty and seek their approval. Faculty will approve request by completing this form and attaching the syllabus for the course.
3. Return the completed form and syllabus to the Office of the Vice President and Dean of Academic Affairs in the Stanton Administration Building.

 - h. Statement of compliance with newly passed HLC/NCA student effort and credit hour policy.

*Failure to include any of the above will result in a rejection of the request and re-submission requirement.
