Tenure-Track Assistant Professor Position
Communication Arts - Digital Media Production

DESCRIPTION:
The Department of Communication invites applications for an Assistant Professor in the area of Digital Media Communication (DMC). This is a tenure-track position that will begin August 2016. The successful candidate will teach in the areas of digitally mediated audio and video communication, as well several additional areas of interest and specialization. Coursework may include: Digital Media Production I and II - emphasis on Adobe Suite, Broadcast Operations for Radio, Television, Media Law for Multiple Operating Platforms, and Professional Preparation of Audio and Video Portfolio. In addition to teaching, the successful candidate will also demonstrate leadership in working with the Communication Arts faculty to develop quality audio and video training and productions. It is expected that the successful candidate will maintain a commitment to excellence in teaching, diversity, scholarship, and service as defined by Adrian College’s Ribbons of Excellence.

QUALIFICATIONS:
- Ph.D. in Communication Arts/Digital Media Studies, completed by August, 2016. Strong candidates with ABD status will also be reviewed.
- Recording studio or post-production experience, live sound setup/consulting/troubleshooting experience or experience developing audio/video curriculum at the post-secondary level.
- Must be proficient in Mac and PC digital audio workstations (DAWs), third party plug-ins, Midi software synthesis for sound design/ and interactive media production, recording studio consulting and design/live sound setup and design preferred.

Please send a cover letter, CV, statement of teaching philosophy, unofficial transcripts (which must include institution name, applicant name, date degree attained, and degree awarded), and online access to a professional portfolio consisting of examples of works that includes the preferred areas of animation, TV/film, location recording, studio recording, gaming, and digital application, and the names and contact information of three references to commsearch2016@adrian.edu. Note that official transcripts will be required for final consideration. Applications will be accepted until January 11, 2016, or until position is filled.

Adrian College is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer and women and minorities are encouraged to apply. If offered a position, finalist must furnish proof of U.S. citizenship or proof of eligibility to work in the U.S. within three (3) days of commencing employment.

A private, co-educational college of liberal arts and sciences related to the United Methodist Church, Adrian College is a traditional four-year residential institution offering a focused undergraduate education. The College offers 40 majors and pre-professional programs, 39 athletic teams and eight institutes dedicated to a diverse and personalized approach to education. Adrian College features state-of-the-art facilities, small class sizes and an innovative approach to the academic and personal growth of its students.

U.S. News & World Report 2016 edition has recognized Adrian College as the ‘#19 Regional Top Baccalaureate College in the Midwest’ Adrian also received accolades as a “Best Value” school. The College landed 14th on the list of Best Value schools in the Midwest region. The College has also been recognized as a “Best School for Veterans,” sitting 14th in the Midwest. Adrian College is located in Southeast Michigan, about 45 minutes from Ann Arbor and Toledo.